NT-Wheatfield celebration planned for sesquicentennial

Public's assistance sought in providing materials

The year 2007 will mark the 150th anniversary of what is now the modern day City of North Tonawanda's becoming part of the Town of Wheatfield. For eight years, from 1857 until

North Tonawanda was ready to advance to being an incorporated village in 1865, it was part of Wheatfield, and continued to be part of the Town of Wheatfield as a village within it, until April 24, 1897. The present day Martinsville and Gratwick communities of North Tonawanda remained part of Wheatfield, as well, until the further advancement in 1897 of North Tonawanda as an incorporated city. Martinsville and Gratwick were then annexed to the new City of North Tonawanda.

The North Tonawanda History Museum hopes to focus many of its 2007 activities on a celebration of the "Sesquicentennial" of its becoming and remaining part of the Town of Wheatfield for the 40-year period from 1857 to 1897.

In April, the Museum will hold its third annual "North Tonawanda's Birthday Party." The program will focus on the Sesquicentennial theme of North Tonawanda and its wonderful neighbor, Wheatfield, the 142nd anniversary of North Tonawanda's incorporation as a village (May 8, 1865), and its 110th anniversary as a City (April 24, 1897). The Museum will also celebrate its third anniversary as a chartered museum (April 20, 2004). Already planning to join in the festivities of the day is St. Peter's Lutheran Brethren Church, which will be celebrating its 120th anniversary in 2007.

The new Town of Wheatfield Historical Society and the Historical Society of North German Settlements of Western New York will be included in the celebration. Mayor Lawrence V. Soos of North Tonawanda and Supervisor Timothy Demler of Wheatfield will also be included. It is hoped that the schools in North Tonawanda and Wheatfield will also be able to join in creating a wonderful "North Tonawanda/Wheatfield Sesquicentennial Celebration!"

Individuals with photos and/or historical materials and items about the shared heritage of North Tonawanda and Wheatfield are invited to contact the North Tonawanda History Museum at 213-0554 or by e-mail at nthistorymuseum@aol.com; the Town of Wheatfield Historical Society at 693-5656; or the Historical Society of North German Settlements of Western New York at 731-9905.

Heart Center starts exercise, wellness plan

Niagara Falls Memorial Medical Center has launched a new, medically supervised program at The Heart Center of Niagara for people seeking better physical fitness.

The Heart Center Wellness Exercise Program is designed to improve cardiovascular endurance, muscular strength, flexibility, body composition, glucose metabolism and blood pressure control.

"Our goal is to provide a structured program that will help individuals develop safe and healthy lifestyles, maximize their functional independence and increase their knowledge of risk factor modification," said Christopher Fetterly, Memorial's manager of cardiopulmonary rehabilitation. "The cost is very reasonable - only $42 payable in advance for 12 sessions."

Premier sells out third straight year

The Premier, Niagara Falls Memorial Medical Center's annual black tie gala, is a sellout for the third consecutive year.

"Once again the Greater Niagara community has shown overwhelming support for all the good things we are working to accomplish at Memorial," said Patricia E. Berggren, vice president for foundation and community relations. "Our Premier committee and its chairpersons, Claudia and Dr. Jerry Andres and Margaret and Carl Sheusi, have done a wonderful job of organizing and creating enthusiasm for this exciting event."

The third annual Premier will be held Jan. 20 at the Seneca Niagara Casino and Hotel and will feature headline entertainment by The Four Tops. Proceeds from the event will purchase surgical equipment for Memorial's new Brain and Spine Center of Niagara.

POW Coalition to hold Spring Seminar

The Prisoner of War Coalition researching World War II Axis POWs held at Fort Niagara during 1944-45 is moving ahead with plans for a national seminar to take place in Lewiston and Youngstown from May 3 to 6. The seminar will include national and local presenters, historical exhibits, artwork that was done by some of the prisoners while incarcerated at the Fort, oral history interviews and other activities. Dr. Arnold Kramer, a national expert on the POW experience in America during World War II, will be the keynote speaker.

Patricia Minarcin, far right, the Opportunities Unlimited of Niagara Foundation immediate past chairperson, congratulated the organization's newly elected officers for 2006-07, from left: Michael Shaw of SHAW Public Relations, secretary; Dawn MacDonald of First Niagara Bank, treasurer; and James Jarosz of M&T Bank, chairman.
